Headteacher's news:

The main items of news this week are:

- Last Friday evening Mrs Atkinson, Miss Greenwood, Miss Simms and I met 35 pupils (and parents) at Headingley Stadium for the Dance Spectacular which took place before a Leeds Rhinos Motor Neurone Disease Awareness match. Thank you to everyone who was involved on a very special evening.
- On Tuesday our girls footballers reached the semi-finals of a tournament at Fisical Sports in Esholt
- On Wednesday Mrs Millen spent some time with a group of Y5 children at Guiseley Theatre as part of the Art Exhibition, Miss Bairstow took some Y5 children to the Leeds Book Awards in Horsforth and KS1 went to the seaside for the day!
- We have also had the bikeability team in school all week working with our Y6 children.

I hope you have a lovely weekend.

In assembly ... Miss Tidey talked to the children about the Eid Al-Adha which took place this week. The children learned how Muslims celebrate this festival and discussed festivals and celebrations in their own lives.

We also had a visit from Top of the Rock Tuition who were showcasing drumming opportunities. Click here for more information.

Some of the brilliant art from Rufford Park displayed at Guiseley Theatre this week and this weekend:
